SHOTGUN ABILITY CHECK

Our ability checks are designed to evaluate your skill level against the minimum standard that you would require to safely participate in the program. All of the checks are based on the level of proficiency that you should have mastered and be able to demonstrate having regard for your previous experience. If you do not pass, we will provide a credit for an future course. In fairness to all of our students we have to insist on a minimum skill level.

We have furnished you with this information, so that you can go to a range and check your own skill level ahead of time.

Skill check criteria (do this test in your own time before arriving for training)

- Understand and articulate the four firearm safety rules. (oral presentation)
- Demonstrate safe load, unload and presentation skills.
- Fire 6 rounds at 6 steel plates in 10 seconds, from 10 metres.
